OHIO STEEL COUNCIL APPOINTS NEW OFFICER

COLUMBUS, OH, September 24, 2014 – The Board of Directors of the Ohio Steel Council (OSC) announced today that it has appointed a new officer.

Jon Jarvis, Vice President of Finance at Tata Steel Plating in Warren, Ohio, will serve a two-year term as Treasurer for the OSC through 2016. He succeeds Ed Forshey, who retired from AMG Vanadium, Inc.

“Jon is a seasoned steel veteran and we are delighted to have him as our new Treasurer. We look forward to his valuable contributions to the Ohio Steel Council,” said Brenda Schulz, Chairperson and President of the OSC.

Ohio Steel Industry Economic Impact

Based on the most recent data available, the Ohio Steel Council estimates that the Ohio steel industry's total impact on the state's economy to be an estimated $7.2 billion. Nearly 100,000 jobs link to the steel industry either through direct employment or ripple effects throughout the economy. For every single job in the steel industry, two more jobs are created and together generate approximately $4.8 billion in wages.

More than 22,000 Ohio residents work directly for companies that produce or process steel products. Those companies pay more than $600 million in taxes to Ohio and its local communities, and $700 million in federal taxes. Revenue from those taxes helps maintain and strengthen local, state and federal programs. In addition, the steel industry in Ohio invests about $315 million per year on capital expenditures taking advantage of some of the most advanced technologies in the world.
